Mary Magdalene Church

Mary Magdalene Church is an inclusive church in the Catholic tradition, where people from all faiths and backgrounds are welcome to the Lord's Table. Mary Magdalene Church Bulletin

July 23, 2017

You're gonna have all of me
Cause you're worth every fallen tear
You're worth facing any fear
You're gonna know all my love
Even if it's not enough
Enough to mend our broken hearts
But giving you all of me

Is where I'll start

"From song All of Me"

Greetings friend!

The world is a very interesting place with all kinds of happenings going on or so it is said. Through out the course of the day I have the opportunity to observe numerous reports of these happenings referred to as "breaking news." Now I have always been attentive to news broadcasting with Walter Cronkite telling us "and that's the way it is" in his signature closing of the CBS evening new. However I have begun to feel inundated, and that is putting it mildly, with a constant flow of news about and around the world. So much so that reruns of Green Acres and Lassie Come Home are beginning to hold a greater interest. It seems that all of this news reporting and keeping me up to date with the latest happenings causes me to flip to the next channel rather than tune in.

I don't want to become cynical or apathetic to the world around me after all I live here. I remember the old joke that went, two friends where meeting for coffee and one said to the other "what do you think are the two biggest issues we face today?" To which his friend replied, "I don't know and I don't care." Humorous but sometimes true. I hope that we can keep ourselves from withdrawing from the world, from covering our ears and closing our eyes because of all the "informative" information that is constantly streamed with numerous commentators who comment on their commentary. What makes for a better life or family or neighborhood or community or country is our individual and mutual participation. As followers of Jesus Christ we are called to be a part of this old world and to work to make our corner of it a better place. So when you see the fifteenth breaking news reports and the news scroll at the bottom of the screen change the channel and not your heart.
